"YACHT" ALAMEDA SAILED ON TIME

The Oceanic steamship Alameda got away for San Francisco promptly at nine o'clock yesterday morning. Her passenger list was not so large as it has been but there was a good crowd on board the steamer and a bigger one on the dock. The band was in attendance as usual and there was much bestowing of leis. As cargo the steamer took 10,000 bags of sugar, 1600 cases of pineapples, 3000 bunches of bananas, 500 bags of fertilizer and a large quantity of miscellaneous freight.

E. M. Boyd, secretary of the Hawaii Promotion Committee left on a business trip to the coast where he will look up ways and means to turn the tourists traffic this way.

Dr. R. L. Wilson who has been assistant surgeon in the Marine Hospital Service here left for the mainland with his family.

CAMBRONNE HAS COAL FOR NAVY

The French bark Cambonne came into the harbor yesterday morning and moored at the Pacific Mail dock a little after nine o'clock. She is a fast vessel having made the voyage from Europe to Columbia river in 118 days.

This trip from Cardiff took 129 days which is considered fast time.

The Pierre Loti which arrived here a few days ago made the passage in 135 days.

The voyage was made in good weather except for a short storm off Cape Horn.

During this long big wave broke over the side, filling one of the ship's boats and carrying it away. The Cambonne has 2,500 tons of coal for the Naval Station. The Pierre Loti has finished discharging coal from the after hatch and is taking on ballast there while still discharging at the forward hatch. As soon as she completes her discharge she will make room at Naval dock No. 1 for the Cambonne.

Kauai Sugar.

The steamer Mikahala arrived yesterday morning from Kauai and Niihau. She had 3448 bags of sugar, 25 head of cattle, 100 head of sheep and considerable miscellaneous freight.

The bark Mohican has arrived in San Francisco thirty-nine days from this port.

The Likelike had a load of coal and some cattle for Kahului this trip so did not return to this port until six o'clock last night.

H. Hackfeld & Company expected a cablegram yesterday giving the cargo and passengers of the Coptic for this port but nothing had been heard late in the afternoon.

The steamship Garonne of the Nome line, well known in this port has been sold to the Merchants & Miners S. S. Co. of New York. She will continue in the Alaska trade.

The schooner Ka Mo'i is off the ways where she was thoroughly overhauled. She had new planking put in and is practically a new boat. She sails at 3 p. m. today for Kohala.

The American ship Kennebec, owned by George Plummer of San Francisco, is reported to have been sold on the Atlantic coast. She is one of the best known vessels of the Pacific.

Captain Rensch of the bark Wrestler who succeeded Captain Neilson, was formerly master of the schooner Okonogan. He was relieved from the latter vessel at his own request for the reason that he could not stand the climate of Manha which was one of the schooner's ports of call. His wife nearly died when at that port. He is accompanied on this voyage by his family.
